Weekly Theme Rundown

By Lynn

Hearts & Kisses Week - In celebration of Valentines Day, a week was spent swapping Valentines and finding soul mates!

Family Swap Week - A la 'Wife Swap', Milkers would trade babyz for a short period of time. They kept diaries of their experiences and posted them for the rest of Milk to see!

Top Trumps Week - Each member that wanted to play our little game created a game card featuring one of their babyz. Points were assigned for different poses, and the players would face off! The baby with the most points wins!

Winner of Winter Term - Celebrating KIWI'S outstanding victory bunny of the house cup for Winter Term!

Guess Their Genetics

By Kelly

Oh no! Madison took her earrings out and I can't remember what shape they were! Do you remember? The first three people to PM the moosletter account with the right answer wins a prize!

Congrats to last month's winners who correctly guessed that Leopald has no hair: Natalie, Chlorie and Cheryl! You each win 50 bells!

Caption Contest

By Lynn

Do you know what Addison is thinking?
Send your ideas into the Moosletter, and our favorites will win a prize!

Last month's winner is Natalie!
"Give me cookies or talk to the hand."
Congrats! You may collect 30 bells.

Monthly Star Signs

By Charlotte

Aries

With a generally harmonious environment around you, it goes without saying that there's support and encouragement whenever you might need it. Domestic arrangements are subject to change. Friends and partners are surprisingly helpful.

Taurus

You look to the future with refreshed hope and confidence. New beginnings are likely. You might THINK you're prepared, but things could happen far quicker than expected. You're more outgoing than usual now and intend to fully enjoy group activities, this spring.

Gemini

A new job, or unexpected financial developments has the effect of increasing your monthly income. Whatever does occur, be sure that you will feel happy about possible changes. Your self confidence will make a difference too, to your closest relationships.

Cancer

Romance is in the air. Single Cancerians will enjoy increased social popularity. If, however, you're married, you may have to be careful about whom you are seen with!

You could become heavily involved in community events at this time.

Leo

Projects which proved difficult in the past are suddenly very easy. You're able to see things from a different angle. Lucky breaks in money are likely.

Virgo

Although you're keen on making some changes, you should perhaps spend some time considering where these might lead to. A splendid month for romance, and romantic associations.

Libra

Heavy responsibilities are likely. Health matters are accentuated and it will be sensible to relax in your off-duty hours. Mid March will bring news of an engagement within the family.

Scorpio

This is a good time for long-distance travel. A short holiday will provide a relaxing break. Social activities lead to you meeting a useful acquaintance.

Sagittarius

When a friend or colleague makes the effort to mend a broken relationship, perhaps you should follow suit. You'll feel far better when you know misunderstandings of the past are forgiven.

Capricorn

Other people need help with their affairs but you would prefer to get on with your own. Sometimes you feel as if demands will never end, but eventually you'll be left to yourself. At such times it will come to you how lucky you are to have such good friends around you.

Aquarius

It's good that you are flexible in this March when you won't know whether you're coming or going. Relationships are fun but you would rather be with your special someone than in a crowd. Routine matters are left standing when some much more exciting things come along. Something secretive is in the air.

Pisces

Rather than worrying about the past, you make a determined decision to think about the future. A loved-one makes it obvious that they appreciate your current mood.

Tip Of The Month

By Bree Nicole

Organize your photos:

I know I take tons of photos and it gets hard to try and keep them organized. Did you know there is an easy way to rename all your files?

Just highlight all the photos you want grouped together. Once they are all highlighted, right click one and rename. Now, all photos in that group will be renamed, but just have numbers after it 00, 01 etc.

It's the easiest way to group all of your babyz photo files together!

Personal Ads

By Jen

Looking for love? Or just want someone to share your animal crackers.

Send in your personal ad with a picture and you might find a long lasting friendship!

Send your ad to the moosletter account!

Find It

By Charlotte

Congratulations to Cheryl, Chlorie, Gabrielle, and Natalie who have won 50 bells for finding the word "Cupid" in the previous moosletter. This month, look for the word "Bunny" hidden somewhere in the moosletter! If you spot it, PM the location to the 'moosletter' account and win 50 bells!

That's it for this month!!! See you next month!
