Tip Of The Month

By Charlotte

Organization of birthdays:

The best way for me is to check all their b-days in Lnz pro then put them in order by month in notepad, then save it in the babyz folder. cupid That way I can always keep track.

Find It

By Brittney

This month, be on the lookout for the word, Cupid, which is hidden somewhere in the moosletter! If you spot it, PM the location to the 'moosletter' account and win 50 bells!

Congrats to Cheryl, Amzy, and Faye for finding 'tomato' in the previous moosletter. Please take 50 bells!

Moosletter Poll

By Bree Nicole

This month the BC was polled questioning their sense of style taste for their babyz.

When asked what their mootique outfit preference only 16% said they like to wear the complete set they purchased.

Another 28% either prefer them to just match, or mix and match their outfits.

But, overall a whopping 56% say that they prefer to mismatch everything! I guess we all just love to make a statement.

Monthly Star Signs

By Erica

Aries

Someone you just met can help you make things happen today -- if you ask them.

Taurus

Take the time to read the small print in a legal document. There's a surprise there.

Gemini

Be audacious in asserting yourself -- you shouldn't let anyone push you around.

Cancer

Today is the day to get stuff off of your plate! Get out and get going this morning.

Leo

In a negotiation today, your suggestions will be eagerly adopted by the other party

Virgo

You'll be promised something for nothing today, but you're too smart to fall for it.

Libra

Go ahead and get more philosophical today -- get a lot of intellectualizing done

Scorpio

You're able to resist temptation, but now it may be wiser to give in a little bit.

Sagittarius

Try to keep busy today. Distracting yourself from impending news is a good idea.

Capricorn

Someone's flighty behavior is going to change soon. They're getting your hints.

Aquarius

Take pleasure in your unique qualities and be proud of them in front of others.

Pisces

Don't be too specific when you answer probing questions today. Keep things vague.
